FESTIVAL RULES AND GUIDELINES

1. Proof of general liability insurance, including product liability insurance, with a minimum value of $1,000,000 (one million dollars) is required. Your insurance provider must complete the certificate as follows:

The description MUST EXACTLY state:

"The City of Dearborn, Michigan, its elected officials, officers, employees, boards, commissions, authorities, voluntary associations, and any other units operating under the jurisdiction of the city and within appointment of its operating budget including the City of Dearborn are named as additional insured and said coverage shall be considered to be the primary coverage rather than any policies and insurance or self-insurance retention owned or maintained by the City of Dearborn".

The certificate holder must list:

City of Dearborn
16901 Michigan Avenue
Dearborn, MI 48126

If a complete certificate is not on file, you will not be permitted to operate your booth and all deposits and fees will be forfeited.

3. All on-site vendors require an I-Chat authorization from the Dearborn Police Department (further instructions will be sent upon selection).
4. Each assigned space must be left in the same condition in which it was found. All waste must be disposed of properly. If not, the vendor will be responsible for compensation to the City of Dearborn in the amount required to return the area to its original condition.
5. The decision to cancel the Dearborn Homecoming Festival due to inclement weather during the event will be made by the City of Dearborn Festival Director. If canceled, the City of Dearborn will not be held responsible for any cost(s) or loss of potential earnings incurred by operators. However, in the event of a full cancellation of the Dearborn Homecoming Festival, remaining fees will be refunded.
6. Vendors will be responsible for transporting items to and from their booth space. No vendor transport or cart service will be provided by the festival. That said, ABSOLUTELY NO vehicles will be permitted to move through festival grounds during festival hours. A load-in and load-out schedule will be provided if your application is approved. Failure to comply with this schedule may result in the immediate forfeiture of your vendor privileges.
